Examining the widespread phenomenon of human trafficking in Vietnam during the period of French colonial rule this book focuses on the practice of kidnapping or stealing Vietnamese women and children for sale in Chinese markets from the 1870s through to the 1940s The book brings to light the fact that human trafficking between Vietnam and China existed prior to more contemporary instances of this trade It provides information as to the perpetrators the nature and the scope of this illicit commerce and its impact on the lives of its victims who were mainly domestic servants concubines or prostitutes The book also examines the ways in which French colonial actors missionaries administrators military officers adventurers and observers and consuls reported described and reacted to it and goes on to analyse the impact of human trafficking on the concept of French prestige and on the French colonial project in Vietnam Human trafficking in colonial Vietnam illustrates the tensions and the conflicts not only between the French and the Vietnamese but also between the Vietnamese and the Chinese as well as between the colonies and the French colonial administration and between the colonial and metropolitan governments The book will be of interest to students and scholars of Southeast Asian History Colonial History and Criminology

Violence, Colonialism and Empire in the Modern World Philip Dwyer, Amanda Nettelbeck, 2017-10-17 This book explores the theme of violence repression and atrocity in imperial and colonial empires as well as its representations and memories from the late eighteenth through to the twentieth century It examines the wide variety of violent means by which colonies and empire were maintained in the modern era the politics of repression and the violent structures inherent in empire Bringing together scholars from around the world the book includes chapters on British French Dutch Italian and Japanese colonies and conquests It considers multiple experiences of colonial violence ranging from political dispute to the non lethal violence of everyday colonialism and the symbolic repression inherent in colonial practices and hierarchies These comparative case studies show how violence was used to assert and maintain control in the colonies contesting the long held view that the colonial project was of benefit to colonised peoples

The Chinese Diaspora in South-East Asia Tracy C. Barrett, 2012-02-22 As Qing Dynasty China disintegrated economic hardship and civil disorder led to millions of Chinese men and women seeking their fortunes abroad many journeying south into French Indochina These emigres settled into tight knit communities called huiguan organisations which closely mirrored the religious social and economic constitution of their own places of origin Here Tracy Barrett sheds light on the overseas Chinese communities in French Indochina and the interactions between them and French colonial authorities She also addresses the nature scope and effectiveness of the congregation system an institution designed by the French to control Indochina's overseas Chinese but eventually extended across the greater French empire as a means of monitoring foreign Asiatics Including a close analysis of French colonial law and of the economic and social networks between Chinese settler communities across Indonesia The Chinese Diaspora in South East Asia provides an important insight into the characteristics of Chinese migration Contingent Loyalties Diana Zhidan Duan,2025-10-01 From the mid nineteenth century Hui rebellions which challenged centralised state control to the early twentieth century revolutions which led to Yunnan s decades long independence local actors shaped the history of Yunnan through their extensive cross border networks and contradictory roles in the attempted state consolidation of this contested area Among the local elites the state agents both Han and non Han acted on behalf of the state in the borderlands affairs while seeking the balance between the interests of the state and their own communities The state agents competed with each other while utilising and wrestling with the state authorities The dynamic relationship between the state and local actors created another contested facet of modern Yunnan s transformation Competing narratives emerged when local actors negotiated and reconstructed their status within the contemporary Chinese nation state Bandits became heroes separatists became patriots a vibrant regional center became an isolated exotic and marginal province of the People s Republic of China
