The Gift And The Giver:

The Concept of Service Quality in Commercial Practice Amelikeh Confidence E. N.,2020-07-30 Commercial Practice is the work done for the earning acquisition and ownership of existence and within existence What one acquires the one is said to own resulting in the application of ownership to anything at all acquirable including the slave however the slave is held in possession disowned and hence cannot be said to be owned We cannot accurately say that one owns a slave nor that a slave has owner when the slave is held disowned The disowned thing has no owner The application of ownership to the slave has brought difficulty in telling the relationship between parent and child husband and wife employer and employee and citizen and state for instance as a person being owned sounds as the person being a slave We have redeemed the reality of ownership There are things one can own and things one cannot own although acquirable therefore there are things one has the Right to acquire and things one has no Right to acquire If you cannot own it and you acquire it then you have stolen it rendering you a criminal as theft is a crime Learn Commercial Practice it is the legitimate method of acquiring and possessing and ownership

The gift of the Spirit, a selection from the essays of P. Mulford. With an intr. by A.E. Waite Prentice Mulford,1898

The Reason of the Gift Jean-Luc Marion,2011-09-26 This book represents a continuation of Jean Luc Marion s work on givenness as a foundational concept A former student of Jacques Derrida Marion is known for his work in seventeenth century French philosophy for his theory of God without being and for his reformulation of phenomenology Marion s groundbreaking work on givenness is articulated through attentive readings in a striking array of philosophical texts The four pieces collected here based on the fall 2008 Richard Lectures at the University of Virginia expand upon and go beyond the lines of Marion s previous work and exemplify the intersection of his own constructive brilliance with his talent and rigor as a historian of philosophy Reengaging philosophers long central to Marion s own work Husserl Heidegger Levinas and highlighting the significance of lesser known but decisive influences Natorp Rickert Meinong these lectures will be valuable to readers interested in the ongoing conversation seeking to bridge the divide between Continental and analytic philosophies particularly through the exploration of common points of origin These pieces tackle some of the most pressing debates in contemporary European philosophy and offer students of Marion material to ponder as they seek to further understand his influences Taken together these essays form an important volume by a major figure in contemporary philosophy

Postmodern Philosophy and Christian Thought Merold Westphal,1999-11-22 Are postmodern philosophy and Christian thought so diametrically opposed that never the twain shall meet Or are various postmodern philosophies in spite of their secular provenance open to religious appropriation These thirteen lively original essays awaken secular postmodernisms and various modes of Christian thinking from their ideological complacency An open space for passionate dialogue emerges from conversations that powerfully engage both intellectual and religious points of view

The Gift of Love Andrew Staron,2017-02-01 The Gift of Love explores the intelligibility of Augustine s claim that we come to know and encounter God in and through our love Building upon the discoveries of recent scholarship Andrew Staron reads Augustine's De Trinitate not as presenting the Trinity as a concept to be grasped but rather as a rational study of the limits of theological language and the possibility of coming to know the Trinity because of those limits Human dependence on God's initiative indicates that the Trinitarian God of love is knowable only through attention to how God's self-revelation transforms and saves us Therefore to see God one seeks to mark love's formative activity within the heart Jean Luc Marion's rigorous description of the gift of love offers to Augustine's theology a phenomenological texture by which the Trinitarian love given in revelation might be made incarnate in one's life The Gift of Love presents a reason for hope that while coming to know the Trinity that God is might be impossible for human beings it is made possible by God's antecedent gift of love given in the missions Son and Holy Spirit and iconically received in the particularity of one's own love

If Creation Is a Gift Mark Manolopoulos, 2009-02-13 What if our world were considered a gift Extending postmodern gift theory to ecological and ecotheological concerns Mark Manolopoulos explores how creation the what is can be seen as a gift Creation when viewed in a radically egalitarian way is the matrix of all material things human otherwise than human or humanly manufactured Utilizing and critiquing the work of Jacques Derrida and Jean Luc Marion Manolopoulos argues that the gift is an irresolvable paradox marked by the contradictory elements of excess gratuity linearity and exchange gratitude return Philosophical and theological reflections on the gift become entangled in its paradoxical tension but ultimately both aspects must be respected and reflected When it comes to the creation gift we should vacillate between responses like letting be enjoyment utility and return Elegantly written and thought provoking If Creation Is a Gift both contributes to the ongoing debate on the gift and provides a fresh philosophical and theological consideration of the environmental crisis

The Gift of the Gospel H. Gerard Knoche, 1995 For all who are exploring the Christian faith for the first time as well as experienced believers who want to deepen their faith Knoche offers this classical study of the Christian faith Insightful quotations from classic and contemporary Christian writers along with questions for reflection and discussion make The Gift of the Gospel ideal for study groups clergy or other congregational membership classes

The Gift of the World Charles Miller, 2000 Until recently and partly because of the political circumstances of the Romanian church prior to 1989 English speaking readers have had access to very little of Staniloae's writing But his great masterpiece Orthodox Dogmatic Theology is at last beginning to appear Staniloae's theological stature has been compared to Barth Rahner and Schillebeeckx In him we meet not only a contemporary master of Orthodox thought but a Christian thinker of ecumenical proportions one who addresses the needs and aspirations of Christians living in a technological age and who offers an important and timely contribution to Green theology The present volume is described by the author as a prolegomenon to the reading of Staniloae It takes one vital theme from the centre of his dogmatic system that of creation as the primordial gift of God and shows how this applies both to sacramental theology and to ecclesiology Containing a guide to the works of Staniloae Charles Miller's book will be
