Percy H. Dougherty

Wines Of Champagne Burgundy And Eastern And Southern France:

The Wines of Champagne, Burgundy, Eastern and Southern France John J. Baxevanis, 1987 Continuing his comprehensive survey begun in The Wines of Bordeaux and Western France John J Baxevanis here focuses his attention on the viticulture regions that include some of the most illustrious names in the annals of wine Champagne Burgundy and Beaujolais Baxevanis covers land use patterns grape varieties and their characteristics the history and distinctive qualities of the vintages wine classification and a region by region examination of wine availability cultivation maturation composition landscape and ambiance

Wine and the Vine Tim Unwin, 2005-07-12 Very few books have products as diverse as those of the grape vine even fewer have products with such a cultural significance Wine and the Vine provides an introduction to the historical geography of viticulture and the wine trade from prehistory to the present It considers wine as both a unique expression of the interaction of people in a particular environment rich in symbol and meaning and a commercial product of great economic importance to particular regions

The Geography of Wine Percy H. Dougherty, 2012-01-02 Wine has been described as a window into places cultures and times Geographers have studied wine since the time of the early Greeks and Romans when viticulturalists realized that the same grape grown in different geographic regions produced wine with differing olfactory and taste characteristics This book based on research presented to the Wine Specialty Group of the Association of American Geographers shows just how far the relationship has come since the time of Bacchus and Dionysus Geographers have technical input into the wine industry with exciting new research tackling subjects such as the impact of climate change on grape production to the use of remote sensing and Geographical Information Systems for improving the quality of crops This book explores the interdisciplinary connections and science behind world viticulture Chapters cover a wide range of topics from the way in which landforms and soil affect wine production to the climatic aberration of the Niagara wine industry to the social and structural challenges in reshaping the South African wine industry after the fall of apartheid The fundamentals are detailed too with a comparative analysis of Bordeaux and Burgundy and chapters on the geography of wine and the meaning of the term terroir

Wine and the Vine P. T. H. Unwin, 1996 Wine and the Vine provides an introduction to the historical geography of viticulture and the wine trade from prehistory to the present Throughout the rich symbolic and cultural significance of wine is related to its evolution as a commercial product The book thus discusses both the numerous symbolic roles assigned to wine and the vine by people of different religions and also the internationalisation of wine production and marketing
