Winning With Intelligence A Biography Of Brigadier John David Rogers Cbe Mc 18951978:

The Architect of Victory Peter J. Dean, 2011-04-21 Lieutenant General Sir Frank Berryman is one of the most important yet relatively unknown officers in the history of the Australian Army Despite his reputedly caustic personality and noted conflicts with some senior officers Berryman was crucial to Australia's success during the Second World War But did the man known as Berry the Bastard deserve his reputation Bold calculating and talented Berryman was at the forefront of operations that led to the defeat of the Japanese and his operational planning secured Australia's victories at Bardia Tobruk and in New Guinea during the Pacific War With access to rare private papers Peter Dean charts Berryman's special relationships with senior US and Australian officers such as MacArthur Chamberlain Blamey Lavarack and Morshead and explains why the man poised to become the next Chief of General Staff would never fulfil his ambition Give the Bastards Hell David W. Cameron, 2025-03-05

In New Guinea's jungles a fierce battle turned the tide of the Pacific War the first major land defeat for the unstoppable Japanese forces By mid August 1942 Imperial Japanese forces dominated the Southeast Asian and Pacific theatres seemingly unstoppable in their advance While the Japanese South Seas Force pushed north toward Port Moresby along the Kokoda Track they launched an operation against Milne Bay at the eastern tip of New Guinea Their objective to seize the crucial Allied airfields under construction which would pave the way for capturing Port Moresby and consolidating their hold on the region For two intense weeks Japanese marines supported by tanks and naval bombardments battled through the jungle covered strip of land between the beaches and mountains Facing them was a determined and diverse Allied force Australian militia 2nd AIF troops American engineers and critically Australian fighter pilots who fought the Japanese to a standstill near the partially completed Air Strip No 3 Despite desperate human wave attacks by the Japanese the Allies held their ground When the smoke cleared the Japanese had suffered their first significant land defeat since Pearl Harbor The Battle of Milne Bay marked a turning point in the Pacific War signalling the beginning of the end for the Imperial Japanese Empire Diggers and Greeks Maria Hill, 2010 Little is known about the real reasons that Australia committed troops to Greece Australian historians have for too long neglected the Greek and Crete campaigns and what has been written until now has ignored the Greek side of the story Bardia Craig Stockings, 2009 Challenging in its perspective and controversial in its conclusions Bardia is a riveting account of the first large scale battle planned and fought by an Australian formation in World War II Book Jacket Australia 1944-45 Peter J. Dean, 2016 Thoroughly researched and generously illustrated Australia 1944-45 is the compelling final instalment in Peter Dean's Pacific War series Swastika over the Acropolis Craig Stockings, Eleanor Hancock, 2013-07-04 Swastika over the Acropolis is a new multi national account which provides a new and compelling interpretation of the Greek campaign of 1941 and its place in the history of World War II It overturns many previously accepted English language assumptions about the fighting in Greece in April 1941 including for example the impact usually ascribed to the Luftwaffe German armour and the conduct of the Greek Army Further Swastika over the Acropolis demonstrates that this last complete strategic victory by Nazi Germany in World War II is set against a British Dominion campaign mounted as a withdrawal not an attempt to save Greece from invasion and occupation At the same time on the German side the campaign revealed serious and systemic weaknesses in the planning and the conduct of large scale operations that would play a significant role in the regime s later defeats Saving Port Moresby David W. Cameron,2022-09-21 Commemorating the 80th Anniversary of the Battles in New Guinea David W Cameron one of Australia s leading military historians new Kokoda Campaign series will take you from the Battle for Isurava to Port Moresby and finally the retaking of Kokoda For the first time these significant battles of Australian troops are comprehensively explored After taking Kokoda Plateau in late July 1942 Japanese forces entered the Owen Stanley Range their mission was to capture Port Moresby After the battles for Deniki and Isurava the Japanese pushed south through the mountains The Australians were in a determined fighting withdrawal After a delaying action at Templeton s Crossing they took up a position along Mission Ridge south of Efogi Village After two days of bloody hand to hand fighting in a battle known as Butcher s Corner the Australians were again forced to withdraw After further delaying actions fewer than 300 Australians took up a position on Ioribaiwa Ridge just 50 kilometres north of Port Moresby They were reinforced by the 25th Brigade After a week of fighting the Japanese cut through the 25th forcing the Australians to fall back to Imita Ridge the last defensible ridge in the Owen Stanleys immediately behind lay Port Moresby Winning with Intelligence Judy Thomson,2000 American Book Publishing Record ,2001
