Todos entran Eduardo S. Bustelo,Alberto Minujin Z.,1998-01-01 Adjustment, Poverty and Employment in Mexico Araceli Damian,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 Analyzing the poverty trends in Mexico during the 1980s and early 1990s this work is concerned with the extent to which changes in the levels of poverty have modified the extent of participation in the labour market The period covered is 1982 to 1994 when the Mexican economy experienced an economic crisis and the government set in motion the main stabilization policies and structural adjustment reforms The author challenges the idea that adjustment reforms have had social costs in terms of income and formal employment loss Despite income losses well being indicators continued to improve and employment statistics show that employment grew despite the economic crisis and adjustment The paradox of household income decline and the increase in income poverty is explained

Business and Environmental Risks Diego A. Vazquez-Brust,José A. Plaza-Úbeda,Jerónimo de Burgos-Jiménez,Claudia E. Natenzon,2011-12-10 Based on detailed research funded across two continents and involving universities in Argentina Spain and the UK this book sets out an innovative multidisciplinary approach to assessing both environmental and social risks in a given territorial area Using data from a number of Ibero American nations the study combines environmental socio economic and geographic factors to construct a set of spatial and technical indicators that measure the social vulnerability and industrial hazardousness of a defined area Aggregating these indicators in a geographic information system GIS allows researchers to assess the potential risk to which a certain area and its population are subject as a result of the environmental deterioration caused by co located industrial activity

Sport and Social Exclusion in Global Society Ramón Spaaij,Jonathan Magee,Ruth Jeanes,2014-06-27 Social exclusion is one of the most pressing challenges in post industrial societies encompassing economic social cultural and political dimensions This important new book critically examines the relationship between sport and social exclusion from global and cross cultural perspectives The book analyses sport and social exclusion by focusing on three key questions How does social exclusion affect participation in sport How is social exclusion reproduced experienced resisted and managed in sport How is sport used to combat social exclusion and promote social inclusion in other life domains To answer these questions the authors discuss and critically reflect on existing knowledge and in depth case studies from Europe Australasia Africa and Latin America The book illuminates the relationship between sport and social exclusion in Global North and Global South contexts addressing key issues in contemporary social science such as social inequality worklessness gender disability forced migration homelessness and mental health Sport and Social Exclusion in Global Society is important reading for all students researchers and policy makers with an interest in sport sociology sport development sport management or the relationship between sport and wider society

Relocating Global Cities M Mark Amen,M Martin Bosman,Kevin Archer,2006-04-27 Drawing on eight case studies from key cities on the periphery of global cities literature Relocating Global Cities argues that all cities are globalizing in important ways Case studies of Frankfurt Johannesburg Bangkok Manila Tampa Sydney Brussels and Caracas provide the basis for an alternative theoretical approach to global city formation Reconciling a market based understanding and an agency based understanding of global cities this book proposes that globalization and cities are mutually constituted by the global political economy engaging with transnational and local agents The volume proposes an alternate theoretical approach to the literature of globalization while remaining grounded in concrete discussions of key cities Its expert contributors reconcile the conflicting ways in which two dominant paradigms one emphasizing market forces and the other the unique actions of individuals and groups embody our understanding of global cities This book will be of interest to students and researchers alike and is a perfect complement to texts in Urban Studies and Globalization

Citizenship, Culture and Coexistence Clara Ines Pardo Martinez,Alexander Cotte Poveda,2024-06-21 This book seeks to contribute to the most recent discussions on Citizenship Culture and Coexistence in different context considering the importance of these elements for society and urban environments The book offers different perspectives on citizenship culture and analysis that can be inputs for policy and decision makers to design the policies strategies and programs that strengthen urban process from culture art and education to improve citizen coexistence respect for differences and better societies in a dynamic world with permanent challenges
