Too Young to Die Boon Hock Chia, 1999 One would imagine that the young would have every reason to want to live Yet under certain circumstances they have felt that they had no choice but to end their lives When that happens the sense of shock horror and disbelief is unimaginable This book investigates the factors that contribute to young suicides in Asia The author sheds light on this phenomenon by examining the coroners suicide case files and case files of patients treated in his psychiatric clinic as well as poignant letters written by young suicides Hearings on Youth Suicide Prevention Act of 1985 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Elementary, Secondary, and Vocational Education, 1986

Children Mourning, Mourning Children Kenneth J. Doka, 2014-01-21 Based on the Hospice Foundation of America's second annual teleconference this book explores three basic themes in children's grief Firstly it maintains that children are always developing therefore their understanding of death and their reactions to illness and loss are also multifaceted and constantly undergoing change Secondly children grieve in ways that are both different from and similar to adults While they may need different therapeutic approaches from their elders each loss is different and the grief experience will be affected by many of the same factors that affect adults Thirdly it holds that they need significant support as they grieve Talking to children about loss and illness is too important to wait until a crisis rather it is essential to provide opportunities to discuss loss in times that are not so emotionally laden This Book Aims To Demonstrate That Open Communication between parents and children will lead to skills and understanding that are essential to the child for coping with loss and reaffirming that death is part of the process of living
