Todos Los Besos All The Kibes:

Daughters of the Diaspora Miriam DeCosta-Willis, 2003 Daughters of the Diaspora features the creative writing of 20 Hispanophone women of African descent as well as the interpretive essays of 15 literary critics. The collection is unique in its combination of genres including poetry, short stories, essays, excerpts from novels, and personal narratives, many of which are being translated into English for the first time. They address issues of ethnicity, sexuality, social class, and self-representation and in so doing shape a revolutionary discourse that questions and subverts historical assumptions and literary conventions. Miriam DeCosta Willis's comprehensive Introduction, biographical sketches of the authors, and their chronological arrangement within the text provide an accessible history of the evolution of an Afro-Hispanic literary tradition in the Caribbean, Africa, and Latin America. The book will be useful as a textbook in courses in African Studies, Women's Studies, Caribbean, Latina, and Latin American Studies, as well as courses in literature and the humanities.

Transpacific Literary and Cultural Connections Jie Lu, Martín Camps, 2020-11-11 This critical interdisciplinary volume investigates modern and contemporary Asian cultural products in the non-westernized transpacific context of Asian and Latin American intellectual and cultural connections. It focuses on the Latin American intellectual, literary, and cultural influences on Asia, which have long been overshadowed by the dominance of Europe, North America-oriented discourse, and by the predominance of academic research by both Asian and western intellectuals that focuses only on the West. Moving beyond the western intellectual paradigm, the volume examines how Asian literature, films, and art interact with Latin American literature and ideas to reexamine, reconsider, and re-explore issues related to the two regions' historical traumas, cultural identities, indigenous vernacular traditions, and peripheral globalness. The volume argues that Asian and Latin American literary and cultural endeavors are part of these regions' broader efforts to search for the forms of modernity that best fit their unique sociohistorical and sociocultural conditions.

Revival: A History of Spanish Literature (1930) Ernest Merimee, 2018-05-08 The present English version, authorized by the publishers and heirs of M. Merimee, is based on the third French Edition. New material of two sorts has been added, however: First, the translator has been allowed to utilize an annotated, interleaved copy of the Precis 1922 in which the author, and after his death, his son Henri himself, a distinguished Hispanist, had set down material for the next revision. This accounts for many inserted names and phrases and some paragraphs. Second, the translator has rewritten and added with some freedom.
