Tom Swift in the City of Gold, Or, Marvelous Adventures Underground Victor Appleton, 2017-06-19 Chapter I Wonderful News Letter for you Tom Swift

Ah thanks Mr Wilson This is the first mail I ve had this week You ve been neglecting me and the young inventor took the missive which the Shopton postman handed to him over the gate against which Tom was leaning one fine warm Spring day Well I get around as often as I can Tom You re not home a great deal you know When you re not off in your sky racer seeing how much you can beat the birds you re either hunting elephants in Africa or diving down under the ocean or out in a diamond mine or some such out of the way place as that No wonder you don t get many letters But that one looks as if it had come quite a distance So it does agreed Tom looking closely at the stamp and postmark What do you make out of it Mr Wilson and then just as many other persons do when getting a strange letter instead of opening it to see from whom it has come Tom tried to guess by looking at the handwriting and trying to decipher the faint postmark What does that say and the young inventor pointed to the black stamp Hum looks like Jube no that first letter s a K I guess and Mr Wilson turned it upside down thinking that would help I made it out a G said Tom So it is A G you re right Gumbo Twamba that s what it is Gumba Twamba I can make it out now all right Well where for the love of my old geography is Gumba Twamba asked the lad with a laugh You ve got me Tom Must be in Sweden or Holland or some of those foreign countries I don t often handle letters from there so I can t say Why don t you open your letter and find out who its from That s what I ought to have done at first Quickly Tom ripped open the much worn and frayed envelope through the cracks of which some parts of the letter already could be seen showing that it had traveled many thousand miles before it got to the village of Shopton in New York State Well I ve got to be traveling on remarked the postman as Tom started to read the mysterious letter I m late as it is You can tell me the news when I pass again Tom But the young inventor did not reply He was too much engaged in reading the missive for no sooner had he perused the first few lines than his eyes began to open wide in wonder and his manner plainly indicated his surprise He read the letter once and then over again and when he had finished it a second time he made a dash for the house I say dad cried Tom This is great Great news here Where are you dad Say Mrs Baggert he called as he saw the motherly housekeeper where s father I ve got great news for him Where is he Out in the shop I think I believe Mr Damon is with him And blessing everything as usual from his hat to his shoe laces I ll wager murmured Tom as he made his way to the shop where his father also an inventor like himself spent much of his time Well well I m glad Mr Damon is here for he ll be interested in this Tom fairly rushed into the building much of the space of which was taken up by machinery queer tools and odd devices many of them having to do with the manufacture of aeroplanes for Tom had as many of them as some people have of automobiles
