Toms Letters The Private World Of Thomas King Victorian Gentleman:

Tom's Letters Margot Fry, 2001 The correspondence of Thomas King from his arrival in New Plymouth in 1841 following his progress in business politics and his family life It allows us to see the pleasures and pressures of colonial life and gives an insight into Victorian marriage

Men and Manliness on the Frontier R. Hogg, 2012-11-14 In mid nineteenth century Britain there existed a dominant discourse on what it meant to be a man denoted by the term manliness Based on the sociological work of R W Connell and others who argue that gender is performative Robert Hogg asks how British men performed manliness on the colonial frontiers of Queensland and British Columbia

The Routledge History of Western Empires Robert Aldrich, Kirsten McKenzie, 2013-12-04 The Routledge History of Western Empires is an all new volume focusing on the history of Western Empires in a comparative and thematic perspective Comprising of thirty three original chapters arranged in eight thematic sections the book explores European overseas expansion from the Age of Discovery to the Age of Decolonisation Studies by both well known historians and new scholars offer fresh accessible perspectives on a multitude of themes ranging from colonialism in the Arctic to the scramble for the coral sea from attitudes to the environment in the East Indies to plans for colonial settlement in Australasia Chapters examine colonial attitudes towards poisonous animals and the history of colonial medicine evangelisation in Africa and Oceania colonial recreation in the tropics and the tragedy of the slave trade The Routledge History of Western Empires ranges over five centuries and crosses continents and oceans highlighting transnational and cross cultural links in the imperial world and underscoring connections between colonial history and world history Through lively and engaging case studies contributors not only weigh in on historiographical debates on themes such as human rights religion and empire and the taproots of imperialism but also illustrate the various approaches to the writing of colonial history A vital contribution to the field

Historical Dictionary of New Zealand Janine Hayward, Richard Shaw, Lara Greaves, Claire Timperley, 2024-11-19 The Historical Dictionary of New Zealand Fourth Edition provides a broad introduction to New Zealand as well as rich detail about the people events laws concepts and institutions that have shaped New Zealand history This is done through a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 800 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about New Zealand

Serious Sport J. A. Mangan, 2004 Trial blazer and mentor Professor J A Mangan is a distinguished scholar in the fields of sports history whose work has inspired a generation of historians and social scientists across the globe His seminal book on athleticism and imperialism commanded attention and applause from a broad range of historians and social scientists across the globe His seminal work on athleticism and imperialism commanded attention and applause from a broad range of historians It opened new horizons of inquiry providing the field with a richly perceptive study of hegemony and patronage of cultural assimilation and adaptation and of the ways that power elites used sport for socialization acculturation and social control His later works continued to pose critical sometimes controversial questions providing new and provocative insights into the complex social issues involved in the development and diffusion of sporting activity The geographical horizons of his work now span the globe This volume is a fitting tribute to the scholarship and lasting accomplishments of a pioneer who has mentored and continues to mentor numerous young scholars internationally simultaneously developing and maintaining high quality channels through which to disseminate sport history research In appraising his scholarship the contributors to this collection demonstrate their debt to his vision and achievements This volume was previously published as a special issue of The International Journal of the History of Sport Family Experiments Shelley Richardson, 2016-11-30 Family Experiments explores the forms and undertakings of family that prevailed among British professionals who migrated to Australia and New Zealand in the late nineteenth century Their attempts to establish and define family in Australasian suburban environments reveal how the Victorian theory of separate spheres could take a variety of forms in the new world setting The attitudes and assumptions that shaped these family experiments may be placed on a continuum that extends from John Ruskin's concept of evangelical motherhood to John Stuart Mill's rational secularism Central to their thinking was a belief in the power of education to produce civilised and humane individuals who as useful citizens would individually and in concert nurture a better society Such ideas pushed them to the forefront of colonial liberalism The pursuit of higher education for their daughters merged with and in some respects influenced first wave colonial feminism They became the first generation of colonial middle class parents to grapple not only with the problem of shaping careers for their sons but also and more frustratingly what graduate daughters might do next

Landfall Charles Brasch, 2000 Historical & Political Dictionary of New Zealand Keith Jackson, Alan McRobie, 2008 This new retitled and expanded New Zealand edition is a substantially revised edition of the Historical Dictionary of New Zealand published in the United States in 2005 It describes the many changes of the past decade while building on the solid foundations of the earlier editions that examined the country's long and lively history It covers a wide range of topics from relations between the Pakeha and the Maori to the country's recent economic changes and environmental policies The introduction provides a good starting point and the chronology traces New Zealand's history from the earliest settlers to the present The dictionary includes hundreds of entries on important people places events and institutions as well as significant political economic social and cultural aspects and a bibliography for further reading Communities of Women Barbara Lesley Brookes, Dorothy Page, 2002 Scholars in various branches of the humanities convened in July 2000 presumably at the University of Otago to celebrate the work of New Zealand historian Page and there presented early drafts of the eleven essays presented here Among their topics are the communities of 13th century holy woman Ida of Nivelles ladies benevolence in the New Zealand setting and women factory inspectors in Britain from 1893 to 1921 A List of New Zealand Books in Print, 2002 British Review of New Zealand Studies, 2001 The Publishers' Circular and
