Tongues On Fire Caribbean Lesbian Lives And Stories:

Tongues on Fire Rosamund Elwin, 1997 An anthology of autobiographical stories by Caribbean lesbians Performing La Mestiza Ellen M. Gil-Gomez, 2017-10-06 This book first published in 2000 explores the intersections of race gender and gay identities in writings by contemporary American lesbians of colour in order to show how this subject is sometimes ignored sometimes brutalised and is very rarely able to survive on her own terms by constructing her own identity acts of cultural revision The author places the lesbian of colour in the context of current identity theories showing the ever present blind spots within current theoretical paradigms she then reads a variety of writings by lesbians of colour describing the possibilities that exist for these subjects in textual and social realities The author shows the varied communities that threaten the existence of this subject as well as the limits that dictate the subject's ability to create her self By bridging Judith Butler's Gender Trouble and Gloria Anzaldua's New Mestiza she describes how lesbians of colour can survive numerous sites of hostility by constructing a positive identity within her home community through revising cultural traditions and history After considering the power of these acts of revision the author calls for the empowered performance of the mestiza state the state of contradiction wherein the lesbian of colour finds herself This book is the first to analyse creative and theoretical works by African American Asian American Latina and Native American communities and writers through the lens of lesbian studies Authors include recognised figures such as Audre Lorde Ana Castillo and Paula Gunn Allen as well as lesser known authors like Best Brant Natasha Lopez and Willyce Kim It provides a corrective to Butler's empowering but essentially white vision of performing identity so that lesbians of colour can claim their identities and remain tied to their own cultural traditions Ultimately the author asks for a reconsideration of the value of identity studies that articulate monolithic identities and whose analyses perpetuate what they seek to disrupt

Routledge Library Editions: Literature and Sexuality Various Authors, 2021-02-25 This set brings together a collection of classic out of print works that offer some surprising new takes on the theme of sexuality in literature Whether examining new spaces by unrepresented women writers of colour or looking afresh at gay writings of the early twentieth century this set presents a thought provoking take on the subject and as such is an essential reference source

Homoplot Esther Saxey, 2008 Homoplot analyses the lesbian gay and bisexual coming out story in fiction and autobiography from the late 1960s to the present day These stories are recognised as an invaluable record of lesbian gay or bisexual life However this book illuminates their equally vital role as active tools in the arduous project of creating gay lesbian and bisexual identities constructing the identities they seem to describe Homoplot shows how a popular twist of the plot or a single common character trait can be a powerful intervention into sexual politics Approaching these texts with the tools of queer criticism the book celebrates their success but also illuminates their chief problem how the need to create concrete sexual identities has often narrowed the range of queer experiences represented Despite the ongoing popularity of coming out stories this is the first book length study of the genre Homoplot surveys hundreds of examples

including in depth readings of authors such as Jeanette Winterson Dorothy Allison Rita Mae Brown Oscar Moore Paul Monette and Aaron Fricke and provides an incisive account of the genre s defining features The book is essential reading for anyone considering queer literature or lesbian gay and bisexual identity in the twentieth century and beyond Researchers and students considering life history and autobiography will also benefit from its analysis of feminist and queer politics
