walked the walk Whether by lack of inclination or of opportunity many experts on race relations have never actually lived in a racially mixed neighborhood let alone where their own group is a minority In an environment that forces thought about race issues every single day it's a different world How are attitudes about race formed Why is it that even the most willing participants of the melting pot sometimes can't take the heat These and other questions are precisely as relevant now as they were in the period covered here 1978-84 Unfortunately the subject of race will probably continue to be relevant into the next millennium and beyond given that the human race as a whole is still around that long Despite being burglarized mugged vandalized menaced caught in the black chicano crossfire and visited by men in suits who travel in pairs the author found existence in Oakwood rewarding and positive in many ways Film director Barbet Schroeder who lived in Oakwood during the same time period told an interviewer it was the best year of my life so far Like the diary of Samuel Pepys in London like Alexander King's memoirs of Greenwich Village Ghost Town is a record of a fascinating and frightening urban environment through the eyes of an articulate and meticulous observer Visit VirtualVenice info Ghost Towns of Kansas Daniel Fitzgerald, 1988 This illustrated guide to Kansas ghost towns will delight travelers and armchair tourists alike Organized by region it tells the story of 100 towns that have either disappeared without a trace or are only a shadowy remnant of what they once were
