Too Much Art And Society In The Sixties 1960 75:

Too Much Robert Hewison, 2023-02-03 First published in 1986 Too Much records the tumultuous period between 1960 and 1975 when more than at any other time in history the arts were a battleground for the conflicting forces of social change With the new affluence of the Sixties the cultural conformism of the previous decade was rejected in favour of new forms of expression Pop Art pop music fringe theatre and performance poetry helped to create the semi mythological image of Swinging London The liberation ethic was feted as it masked the insecurities of a society in decline but as a real political challenge to the status quo it also led to conflict The confrontation between official culture and the underground came in 1968 a year with its own mythical resonance This book will be of interest to students of art media studies and cultural studies

British Culture and Society in the 1970s Laurel Forster, Sue Harper, 2009-12-14 This collection of essays highlights the variety of 1970s culture and shows how it responded to the transformations that were taking place in that most elusive of decades The 1970s was a period of extraordinary change on the social sexual and political fronts Moreover the culture of the period was revolutionary in a number of ways it was sometimes florid innovatory risk taking and occasionally awkward and inconsistent The essays collected here reflect this diversity and analyse many cultural forms of the 1970s The book includes articles on literature politics drama architecture film television youth cultures interior design journalism and countercultural happenings Its coverage ranges across phenomena as diverse as the Wombles and Woman's Own The volume offers an interdisciplinary account of a fascinating period in British cultural history This book makes an important intervention in the field of 1970s history It is edited and introduced by Laurel Forster and Sue Harper both experienced writers and the book comprises work by both established and emerging scholars Overall it makes an exciting interpretation of a momentous and colourful period in recent culture

Non-Plan: Essays on Freedom, Participation and Change in Modern Architecture and Urbanism Jonathan Hughes, Simon Sadler, 2013-01-11 Non Plan explores ways of involving people in the design of their environments a goal which transgresses political categories of right and left Attempts to circumvent planning bureaucracy and architectural inertia have ranged from free market enterprise zones to self build housing and from squatting to sophisticated technologies of prefabrication Yet all have shared in a desire to let people shape the built environment they want to live and work in How can buildings better reflect the needs of their inhabitants How can cities better facilitate the work and recreation of their many populations Modernism had promised a functionalist approach to resolving the architectural needs of the twentieth century yet the design of cities and buildings often appears to confound the needs of those who use them their design and layout being highly regulated by restrictive legislation planning controls and bureaucracy Non Plan considers the theoretical and conceptual frameworks within which architecture and urbanism have sought to challenge entrenched boundaries of control focusing on the architectural history of the post war period to the present day This provocative book will be of interest to architects planners and students of architecture design town planning and architectural history Its contributors include architects critics and historians including many whose work helped shape the Non Plan debate during the period List of contributors Cedric Price Benjamin Franks Elizabeth Lebas Eleonore Kofman Ben Highmore Yona Friedman Paul Barker Clara Greed Barry Curtis Colin Ward Ian Horton John Beck Chinedu Umenyilora and Malcolm Miles Cultural Revolution? Bart Moore-Gilbert, Dr Bart Moore-Gilbert, John Seed, 2003-09-02 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Sixties in America: School desegregation-Zappa, Frank Carl Singleton, Rowena Wildin, 1999 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that survey the events and people of the 1960s discussing their impact on the life and culture of the United States The Sixties Lesley Jackson, 1998 Lesley Jackson traces the transition from the contemporary design of the 1950s to the pure geometry of the look and the styles that proliferated throughout the momentous events of the 1960s Iain Macleod Robert Shepherd, 1995 A man of paradoxes Iain Macleod has been a legendary figure in the Tory party for many years One of the most brilliant of modern politicians he was an audacious romantic who courted controversy and regularly enthralled the Party conference New Relations David Kennedy, 1996 A study of wide spread changes affecting British poetry over the past 15 years Discusses new and established poets and looks at issues including ideas of individual voice and dominant culture the rhetorical imagination and ideas of nation and poetry as media Includes a rough guide to British postmodernism and a user s guide to the new poetry For poets readers and students Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Event Management , 2008 Vision on John Wyver, 2007 Vision On narrates the turbulent yet distinguished history of one of the fundamental pillars of British broadcasting the arts This volume chronicles the years of dynamic and often controversial collaboration between broadcasters and the Arts Council a key player in bringing art films to the wider public audience Beginning with the earliest TV documentaries the arts became central to the remit of public broadcasters and by the 1980s Channel 4 and the Arts Council were boldly redefining the relationship of the arts and the media by commissioning and airing exclusive and innovative films With detailed discussion of the cultural role of television programmes such as Civilisation 1966 and Arena 1974 onwards close analysis of over 25 films and exclusive access to the Arts Council s collection of the 450 films supported between 1953 and 1999 this volume illuminates the vanguard role the arts have played in the proud history of British public broadcasting and attempts to locate the place of arts broadcasting in today s multi channel multi media world The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 Flowers in the Dustbin Neil Nehring, 1993 Explores the connection between high literary culture and popular culture and argues for cultural anarchism as a form of creative resistance Rebel Alliances Benjamin Franks, 2006 A philosophical perspective on anarchism in Britain today Britain Since 1945 Terence Richard Gourvish, Alan O'Day, 1991 This volume gathers together contributions from a number of recognised experts and provides fresh insights into the connection between economic performance and socio political change since the Second World War It gives political evaluations of the Conservative and Labour parties and analyses the changing attitudes to their responsibilities the welfare state trade unions housing defence education and nationalised industries for example Concluding with an assessment of pop music and youth culture the book spans the political social and economic changes which have defined Britain since 1945 I Had a Dream Jennifer Phipps,1997 The Listener ,1986-07 The Public Library in Britain, 1914-2000 Alistair Black,2000 This work challenges the myth of the public library as an uncontroversial institution without a history It focuses on the emancipatory role of the public library and questions the institutional conservative impulse which has impeded the acceptance of popular culture into public libraries The Cumulative Book Index ,1989 A world list of books in the English language Advertising in the 60s Hazel G. Warlaumont,2001 The 1960s provides Warlaumont with the backdrop for examining the struggle of advertising during the anti establishment movement in one of America s most colorful but turbulent decades Targeted by the counterculture threatened with government regulation criticized as a waste maker by social critics weakened by internal strife between the liberal and traditional forces within the industry and faced with the consumption weary public advertising faced one of its most challenging times Yet surprisingly it made history with its unprecedented creativity and innovation during the 60s Distancing itself from the Establishment advertising as a wolf in sheep s clothing joined the cultural revolution changed the way it related to its audience and attempted to seduce consumers with humor resonance candidness and a power to the people approach Masking its ultimate goal to maintain preserve and promote the consumption ethic and business elite advertising joined an infectious wave to overturn the old and stodgy ways Becoming a turncoat by appearing to abandon its traditional materialistic and authoritarian stance even mimicking it in some instances advertising became a cause celebre with its colorful and humorous campaigns validating itself while under fire Using the 60s as a backdrop Warlaumont examines the struggle of a traditional institution during one of America s most turbulent decades Scholars students and researchers involved with business communications and advertising history as well as the general public interested in the 1960s will find this study fascinating British Society Since 1945 Arthur Marwick,1996 High and popular culture family race gender and class relations sexual attitudes and material conditions science and technology the diversity of social development in these areas is explored in this text within a clear chronological framework
