Song Dynasty Ceramics:

Song Dynasty Ceramics Rose Kerr, 2004-09-14 Song Dynasty Ceramics highlights over 118 objects from the V&A's collection to discuss China's great age of ceramic production 960-1279. Ceramics from this era have always been prized by both Asian and Western collectors for their purity of form and glaze and their inventiveness of decoration. This survey is illustrated with many of the very finest examples of Song ware in the Western world. Jacket A History of Song Dynasty Ceramics Stuart Powell, 2012-02 A History of Song Dynasty Ceramics explores the range of ceramics produced in China and in its conquered territories from the middle of the 10th to the latter parts of the 13th centuries. It looks primarily at the pottery and porcelain dating from the Song Dynasty but also refers to the ceramics that originated in the territories held by the Liao and Jin Dynastic rulers. It considers the range of pottery and porcelain produced by Song Dynasty potters from that made in the provinces for the non-aristocratic to the finest of the tribute wares made for the Imperial palaces. Setting out to improve understanding of the work of the potters and the ceramic pieces that they produced, it also explores the context within which the potting, decorating and firing was done and within which the resulting products were appreciated, traded and used. It examines how the ceramics of the Song period were the outcome of much complexity: the technologies of the times, the raw materials available, the traditions of skilled work in the kiln complexes, the socialisation of the workforce that made them amenable to organisation for mass production, the burgeoning economic climate and the development of a distinctively Song sense of aesthetic taste in which harmony between form and function was achieved by understatement and refinement. Qingbai Ware Stacey Pierson, 2002 The Ceramics of China, 1985. The book deals with the development of the art of ceramics in China. It is intended to give a general idea of the recent progress made by scientific and technical workers in excavating, classifying and studying ancient ceramics as well as offering an account of the production of ceramics in modern times. Inside flap Song Ceramics Stacey Pierson, 2004 A Ceramic Legacy of Asia's Maritime Trade Peter Y. K. Lam, 1985 A Handbook of Chinese Ceramics Suzanne G. Valenstein, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1989 Chinese Ceramics Stacey Pierson, 2009-09 Chinese ceramics are among the most widely admired and collected in the world. From elegant Song celadons to decorative Ming vases and colorful Qing famille rose ceramics produced in China have influenced taste and daily life globally. This new design history draws on the V&A's comprehensive collection to look at the production, consumption, aesthetics and transfer of Chinese ceramics. Stunning new photography illustrates more than 200 pieces, including previously unpublished objects. It also explores ceramics made in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, from Republic period porcelain to propaganda ware and studio pottery, a first for any survey history of the subject. Publisher's description Heaven and Earth Seen Within Lisa E. Rotondo-McCord, New Orleans Museum of Art, 2000.
