

Song Of The Chin String Quartet

Stephen Banfield

Song Of The Chin String Quartet:

Sensibility and English Song Stephen Banfield, 1985 This highly acclaimed study of English song is the first detailed account of an unusually fruitful interrelationship between English music and English poetry The period covered is known as the English Musical Renaissance and runs from the last years of the nineteenth century to the Second World War Stephen Banfield traces the late flowering of Romantic impulses in solo song during these years surveying it from critical analytical and historical angles He plots the growth of the English stylistic sensibility in song in the decades leading up to the First World War discusses in detail the plateau it reached between the wars particularly in the 1920s and shows how and why it declined as other musical concerns took the field Poets whose verse was set to music most frequently including Housman Hardy de la Mare and Yeats are treated at length as are pre eminent song composers such as Butterworth Finzi Gurney Ireland Quilter Somervell Stanford Vaughan Williams and Warlock In all more than fifty composers are discussed and numerous individual songs In the final section of the book besides providing an extensive bibliography Dr Banfield catalogues over 5 000 songs giving dates of composition and publication and much other detail listed by composer This comprehensive survey will prove an invaluable reference guide to all students of the subject
