Imagine a giant box is delivered to your front doorstep with your name on it. What's inside and what happens when you open it?

Write a short story about what it might be like if you woke up one morning with a mermaid tail.

Write about what would it be like if you had an alligator as a pet.

If you were in charge of the whole world, what would you do to make the world a happier place?

Imagine that dogs take over the world. What do they make the humans do?

Write about 3 places you would like to travel someday. What do these three places have in common?

Write a poem that starts with the word "if".

How do you feel when someone takes something of yours without asking? What is a good way to deal with it when that happens?

Imagine you walk out your front door one morning and it is raining popcorn! What do you do?

Here is a compelling and controversial text which asserts that Deaf students should be treated no differently than non Deaf students The author a veteran and practicing teacher rejects the predominant view of Deaf students as special learners in need of language remediation and repair Instead she maintains that for Deaf students as well as their hearing counterparts the primary educational goal is the making and sharing of understandings in various subjects Furthermore she views this as a process that occurs naturally concomitantly and reciprocally with the acquisition of language regardless of one s hearing ability Livingston s assertion clashes with conventional Deaf education which presumes that the wider learning begins after students master a sign system that codifies and reconstructs English With a cumbersome orderly piecemeal and unnatural approach this traditional view frequently forces teachers to water down curriculums in an attempt to make English more readily acquired As a result Deaf students are deprived of rich and challenging content Rethinking the Education of Deaf Students offers an alternative and demonstrates how American Sign Language ASL and English can coexist in the same classroom embedded in the content of what is being taught Through clear theoretical explanations field tested teaching strategies authentic examples of students work lesson plans and sections on assessment Livingston suggests ways to help students become educated language users Her ideas hold enormous implications for those who teach Deaf students develop school budgets design programs and train future teachers More important they may hold the key that unlocks the potential of Deaf students of all ages to become voracious readers and accomplished writers    British Education Index ,2005    The Awesome Writing Prompts Journal for Kids Kirsten du Toit,2020-05-16 Great writing prompt journal for kids between the 3rd and 5th grade Perhaps you have a child who loves writing and wants to develop their skills Or perhaps your child is a reluctant writer who needs to practice writing essays and stories to keep up with their peers Whatever the case may be you ll find this journal filled with writing prompts is perfect for improving children s imagination creativity reading skills vocabulary and comprehension The writing prompts in this book are ideal for children in the 2nd 3rd 4th and 5th grade but older students will also enjoy the interesting topics and fun story starters This is an ideal book for parents looking for a way to extend their child at home What s more the finished journal makes a fantastic keep sake If you homeschool or tutor a child this is a great way to get their creative juices flowing Teachers will love this brilliant book of prompts with a topic for every occasion You ll never run out of creative writing ideas and interesting story starters This book is a great gift for aspiring writers Here are a few examples of great prompts in the book You blow out your birthday candles and make a wish Immediately the wish comes true What did you wish for What happens Your dad is a scientist One of his top secret projects is to bring the dinosaurs back to life He s brought a baby dinosaur home from the lab How do you look after it What type of transportation will people have in the future A strange little door appears in your bedroom You can squeeze through the door if you try What do you find on the other side Writing prompts include interesting story starters but also would you rather questions like would you rather be able to fly or be incredibly strong and persuasive essay topics to improve debating skills
